

FILLMORE & WESTERN LUNCHEON TRAIN

An Upcoming Motor Coach Excursion With SONS OF ITALY

Saturday, April 05, 2008

Tucked away in the rolling hills of Ventura County is a refurbished railway that links the friendly towns of Fillmore and Santa Paula. Join us as we travel to Fillmore, located northwest of Los Angeles, and step aboard a vintage train for a luncheon excursion between the two communities. Once the train departs Fillmore, you'll be served a table-service luncheon in the dining car as the train snakes through the beautiful Heritage Valley en route to Santa Paula. Join us for this popular day trip, as seen on the "Roadtrip with Huell Howser" television series. Happy rails to you!

Menu is: Green Salad, Orange Chicken, Rice Pilaf, Vegetable, Bread & Butter, Chefs Choice Dessert, and coffee or tea.
